Question 2

Kudzai Dumbu is a 35year old ZEGU student who was admitted for the Bachelor of Laws Degree for the April, 2022 Semester. She is a holder of a Bachelor of Science Degree in Structural Design from the National University of Science and Technology among other qualifications but does not have the minimum fourteen Advanced Level points for normal admission in the Faculty of Law at ZEGU. She has paid his tuition fees and to date she has attended law lectures for two weeks. While on Semester break, she received an email to the effect that her admission for the Bachelor of Laws Degree has been revoked for non-compliance with Section 6 of the Faculty of Law's Amended Nationalised Regulations.

Kudzai Dumbu has been offered an option to choose from among the University's various degree programs but she is not interested in any of them save for the Bachelor of laws Degree.

You have been approached by Kudzai Dumbu for recourse with specific instructions to push ZEGU's Faculty of Law to rescind the revocation of admission. State the relevant document you should write to the University and then outline citing relevant legislation why your client should be permitted to pursue her Bachelor of Laws Degree as initially admitted.
