

ZIMBABWE EZEKIEL GUTI UNIVERSITY

FACULTY OF HERITAGE HUMANITIES, AND SOCIETAL ADVANCEMENT

DEPARTMENT OF DEVELOPMENT, PROGRAMMING AND MANAGEMENT

BSC HONORS IN DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

EXAMINATION PAPER

COURSE CODE : ATR131

COURSE TITLE : ETHICS

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS : N/A

DURATION : 3 Hours

DATE :

14 JUN 2024

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

1. Answer any two questions
2. All questions carry equal marks
3. Write ALL your answers in the provided booklet

1. You are working for an organisation that has won a tender to perform an outcome evaluation for a project that was done in a rural area of Zimbabwe. You have been tasked to produce the evaluation report to cater for the following audiences:
 - i. Children
 - ii. Visually impaired group
 - iii. Elderly
 - iv. Government officials

Discuss the ethical considerations as you prepare various reports for the different constituencies.

2. 'Development that ignores the rights of humanities is dead'. Discuss this allegation from developed countries' behavior of dumping toxic materials in the environments of the poor.
3. Explore how the dependency syndrome has subjugated the ethics of Africa's development trajectory and sustainable socio-economic prosperity since 1963.
4. The high crime rates that characterize Zimbabwe are blamed on poverty. In that respect, explain how poverty leads to immoral behaviors, giving practical examples from Zimbabwe.
5. A foreign Mining Company approaches you as the environmental manager of an area in which a huge gold deposit of gold was identified with an application to conduct a mining venture. The area is sacred. As such, traditional leadership of the community requests you to advise the investors on the need to conduct a ritual ceremony at the site before establishing the project. In your opinion, what is the purpose of conducting rituals in this developmental programme?

THE END

0/2 pm