INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

1. Section A is compulsory
2. Answer THREE questions only.
3. All questions carry equal (100) marks
4. Start each question on a new page of your answer sheet.
5. Give relevant examples or case studies.

Section A

1. Choose one theoretical perspective in social policy and apply it to a real-world issue of your choice to develop a detailed intervention plan that outlines how you would use this theory to inform your practice and engage with clients.

Section B

1. Giving examples, identify and discuss policy measures that can be instituted to harness our heritage in addressing Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) in Zimbabwe.
2. Select one model of social policy and analyze its application in addressing a specific social issue in Zimbabwe.
3. You are advocating for improved access to healthcare for a marginalized group in your community. Identify three specific legal provisions from the Constitution of Zimbabwe that you would use in your advocacy efforts. How would you present these legal arguments to stakeholders to effect change?
4. You are facilitating a workshop with community leaders to develop a new policy aimed at enhancing mental health services. Outline the steps you would take during the workshop, including how you would ensure diverse community input and address potential challenges in the policy formulation process.
