COURSE CODE : ASW 123
COURSE TITLE : Deviation and Social Rehabilitation
SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS : N/A
DURATION : 3 Hours
DATE : 22 NOV 2019

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

1. Answer any THREE questions only.
2. Choose at least ONE question from each section. (If there are 2 or more sections)
3. Each question carries 100 marks
4. Don not answer TWO questions based on the same material

1. Critically examine the assertion that deviance and crime do not have substantive definitions.
2. Elaborate on the functionalist approach to the understanding of deviance and crime.
3. With reference to practical examples, examine the utility of the concept of Victimology in the study of deviance and crime.
4. “The move away from criminal justice by social workers was attributed to perceived or real lack of effective practising skills and rehabilitative treatment techniques for offenders, tensions between the philosophies of social work and corrections and lack of training for social work in criminal justice setting” (Ivanoff, Smith and Finnegan, 1993). With reference to the above statement, justify the place of social work in the justice system.
5. Utilising relevant examples, examine the conflict approach to crime and deviance.
